

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,

vs.

ZACHARY LOUIS NEWMAN,
Defendant.

CASE NO: 2:16-CR-352-CW

DETENTION ORDER

The defendant is charged with a felony involving possession or use of a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon. On the government's motion, the court afforded the defendant an opportunity for a detention hearing under the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). The court concludes the defendant must be detained pending trial.

Based on the information of record, the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant's release would pose a risk of nonappearance at court proceedings, and by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant's release would pose a risk of harm to the public

Specifically, the court finds that the defendant

- ☒ has a criminal record which indicates a propensity to violate the law and court orders;
- ☐ has a criminal record which indicates a propensity to violate court orders;
- ☐ has violated the conditions of release previously imposed by the court;
- ☐ has a propensity to harm or threaten harm to others;
- ☐ is addicted or abuses mood-altering chemicals and is likely to continue such conduct and violate the law if released;
- ☐ was not truthful with pretrial services during his interview and therefore poses a substantial risk of noncompliance with supervision;
- ☐ is not a United States citizen, is subject to an ICE detainer, and faces deportation;
- ☐ is not a United States citizen and could flee the country before trial;
- ☐ has substantial contacts with a foreign country and could flee the country before trial;
- ☐ has limited contacts with the community;
- ☐ lacks a stable residence;
- ☐ has limited employment contacts;
- ☒ has failed to appear for court proceedings in the past;
- ☒ is currently in state custody;
- ☐ committed the alleged crime while on supervision;
- ☐ committed the alleged crime while on bond;
- ☐ has mental health issues which will pose a risk of harm if the defendant is released;
- ☒ waived the right to a detention hearing;

and conditions which restrict Defendant's travel, personal contacts, and possession of drugs, alcohol, and/or firearms; require reporting, education, employment, or treatment; or monitor Defendant's movements or conduct; or any combination of these conditions or others currently proposed or available (see 18 U.S.C. § 3142(c)), will not sufficiently ameliorate the risks posed if the defendant is released.

Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or a designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult privately with defense counsel. On order of the United States Court or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for a court appearance.
